

Fashion is Decreeing A Whole New Set of Styles for Winter

Special Showing of Them at this Store beginning today

Can a woman count on wearing her Fall hat all Winter?

Fashion this year says "No."

And accordingly there are coming over from the world's style center a whole new set of models—exclusively for this winter's wear.

Through the Vogue Hat Company, Fifth Avenue, New York, we have just received a group of hats which are the style leaders at the present time. Come in to see them. They will be on exhibition beginning today.

The Store of Quality

The ladies of the Baptist church gave a farewell reception to Mrs.
Nellie White, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Smith. Most of the ladies of the church called during the afternoon and all enjoyable time was spent. Dainty refreshments were served. The honoree was presented with a lovely brooch, set with amethysts and pearls, the ladies wishing to express in a small way the esteem in which Mrs. White is held by the church. All regretted to say good-bye to such a faithful member and friend.

The C. L. White family, with the exception of Ned, left this morning for their future home in California.
The family will be greatly missed, they being active in every thing that was for the best of the town and church and one always knew where to find them when any great moral question arose. May their life in the Golden State be happy and prosperous.

The "Cozy Corner" changed hands this week. Edward Walterscheid and Ed Lapp becoming the new lessees. The boys have had a complete overhauling of stock and room and are putting in a new line of goods, and as both are popular young men, they are bound to succeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Oldham Moore of Dexter, will be guests of J. F. Joyce and family today, they coming from their home to play for the Cemetery Benefit Dance tonight.

Miss Effie V. Hart returned several days ago from the school where she was teaching in Shreveport, La., and is again occupying her home on north Canyon street Mr. and Mrs.
Moore and son having moved to the Homer King apartment. Miss Hart had 160 pupils under her control in the State School for the Deaf where she has been engaged for the past year and she plans to return there in April at the beginning of the next term. Carlsbad is always proud of the presence of this optimistic young woman and gladly welcomes her return.

The Coterie Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Frank Hays, in the Otis district, and was royally entertained by the gracious hostess of the afternoon. Each lady carried along scraps of material enough for a quilt block, and pieced one, and all were given to Mrs. Hays, who will finish the work and have a nice "friendship" quilt as a result of her friends' kindly effort. Delicious refreshments closed the afternoon, which fifteen ladies enjoyed. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Bates.

John Lusk returned from Kansas City yesterday, where he recently took a train load of cattle to market.

Francis G. Tracy, president of the Pecos Valley Water Users' Association is spending the week in Santa Fe, on business for the association.

"Lest We Forget" A JEW

(By Damon Runyon, in the Cosmopolitan.)

The Current acknowledges with pleasure the receipt of the following article from Mrs. Elliot Hendricks:

There's a story in that paper I just tossed upon the floor That speaks of prejudice against the Jews.

There's a photo on the table That's a memory of the war, And a man who never figured in the news.

There's a cross upon his breast—
That's the D. S. C.
The Croix de Guerre, the Militaire,
These, too.

And there's a heart beneath the medals
That beats loyal, brave and true—
That's Dreben,
A Jew.

He is short and fat and funny,
And the nose upon his face Is about the size of Bugler Dugan's horn.

But the grin that plays behind it Is wide, and soft and sunny—And he wore it from the day that he was born.

There's a cross upon his chest—
That's the D. S. C.
The Croix de Guerre, the Militaire,
Mon Dieu!

He's a He-Man through and through
That's Dreben
A Jew.

Now wherever I read articles That breathe of racial hate, I always see that photo With the cap upon the pate
And the nose the size of Bugler Dugan's horn.

I see upon his breast
The D. S. C.
The Croix de Guerre, the Militaire—
These, too.

And I think Thank God Almighty
We will always have a few Like Dreben,
A Jew.

Sam Dreben, a soldier of fortune, and a resident of El Paso, Texas, is a Russian by birth. He enlisted in the Fourteenth Regular Infantry before he was old enough to vote, and was soon seeing service in the Philippines and China. Later as a soldier of fortune, he won a name in Nicaragua and Mexico. When General Pershing led the American forces after Villa, Sam Dreben was his scout. When the United States joined forces with France and England, in the World War, he crossed the pond as a "top cutter" in the Thirty-ninth Division. He led a raid against a machine gun position and received the American Distinguished Service Cross, upon the recommendation of Major Burgess, who had been his Captain. Other honors bestowed upon him are the Croix de Guerre with Palm and the Medaille Militaire, the highest award to an enlisted man, bestowed by the French government.

"The Fighting Jew," as Mr. Dreben is known throughout the army, assisted General Mendez to put down the recent uprising in Juarez. He is known to the residents of his home town as a man without fear, a pa-riot, a soldier and a gentleman.

In the copy furnished the Current in regard to the Fireman's entertainment, which is to be given the 25th instant, the place where reserved seat tickets may be secured was given as Corner Drug Store, whereas it should have been Star Pharmacy. The Current followed copy in the matter, but gladly makes the correction.

Mrs. John T. Bolton sustained a very severe and painful burn while frying doughnuts last Saturday. Being hurried, she in some manner upset the utensil in which they were cooking and badly burned her left hand.
She has been under the doctor's care for some days, but is getting better at this time.

The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Baptist church, will hold a meeting this afternoon with Miss Isabel Smith, at 3:45. This is a new organization and is in charge of the minister's wife, Mrs. Harrison, being organized by that lady. Miss Lucille Pond is the president.

ALFALFA FOR SALE—I have on my farm at Otis, twenty (20) tons of No. 1 alfalfa hay. Price not delivered, $25.00. Terms, cash when taken. L. F. DIEFENDORF.

CHEAP POWDER FOR POULTRY

Mixture of Gasoline, Carbolic Acid and Plaster of Paris Will Eradicate Insects.

A cheap lice powder for poultry may be made by mixing three parts of gasoline and one part of crude carbolic acid with as much plaster of paris as the liquid will moisten. This is the suggestion of the Ohio station.
The powder is allowed to dry before using. It may be kept in an air-tight container where it retains its strength for a long period. The powder is inflammable and must be kept away from fire.

Infested fowls when thoroughly dusted are soon relieved from the attacks of lice. About 125 birds may be dusted in an hour, one pound of the mixture being needed to dust ten mature fowls. For head lice on chickens, the use of blue ointment or mercurial ointment has been found effective. One part of the ointment is mixed with two parts of vasoline and a lump of the mixture about the size of a pea is rubbed thoroughly at the base of the feathers about the head.

If love is blind there must be a lot of married people enjoying excellent sight.

The Aristocracy OF THE Piggly Wiggly Basket

Hundreds of thousands of housewives every day buy their table needs of Piggly Wiggly.

They know that they get full value in quality and quantity.

They know they can select exactly what they want, not what someone wants to hand them.
No one to persuade, no one to suggest, no one to recommend what they shall or shall not buy.

They know they save money. They know that they save time.

They know that they get clean goods from a clean store.
Why should YOU pay more?

Sugar, 12lb .....	$1.00
Maxwell House Coffee, per lb. ....	.38
Schillings Coffee, per lb. ....	.43
Hills Bros. Coffee, per lb. ....	.45
Arbuckles Coffee, per lb. ....	.28
Shelled Pecans (in carton) per lb	1.15
Fancy Potatoes, per cwt. ....	2.00

What would you be paying for these items if there were no Piggly Wiggly in Carlsbad.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

ALL OVER THE WORLD

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 27, 1922.
White Ribbon Comrades of New Mexico—Greetings and Congratulations!

To you who are banded together to serve "God and home and humanity" under the banner of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, engaged in mothering girls; in enterprises of education, legislation, Americanization, Christian citizenship, law enforcement; teaching the patriotism that reveres the laws; the ideals of the single standard of morals for men and women; industrial justice for women, the call is sent to assemble for the thirty-ninth annual convention of the New Mexico Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Raton, the "Gate City" of the Sunshine State situated in a scenic beauty spot near the clouds, has been chosen as the place for the 1922 assembly, December 2, 3, 4 and 5.

These dates follow the world's and national convention in the East, and it is expected distinguished speakers returning to the Pacific coast will stop over to address the New Mexico convention.

Raton Union extends a cordial invitation to wearers of white ribbon to attend the convention.

Official local delegates will be:
the president of each local Union; one delegate-at-large, and one delegate for each ten paying members of the local union, or major fraction thereof.

Local officers are urged to arrange for the trip in automobiles, in places so far removed that the carfare will prohibit the attendance of the full quota of delegates.

Mrs. Jennie Weaver, president of Raton W. C. T. U. is to be notified how many will attend from each union.

Because the army of white ribboners are mobilizing from fifty countries for the triumphs of the prohibition cause, and the world's officers have fixed November 12, as a day of international thanksgiving, this date is commended to New Mexico white ribboners, who are linked with the sisterhood of more than a million members of the world, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. Because New Mexico has increased in membership and achievements; and chiefly because the W. C. T. U. in this state has established and is successfully operating a home and educational institution for girls of good character that is proving a genuine blessing to New Mexico girlhood—the Frances E. Willard school for girls in Santa Fe, that has been endorsed by the state Federation of Women's Clubs, and by every church denomination in the state—the call to convention is a call to motherhood—as well as a call to avowed thanksgiving.

The call to convention is a call to patriots who esteem Old Glory and the noble ideals it symbolizes. A call to assemble to consider methods to combat the insidious activities that are undermining the foundations of government in violation of the federal constitution.

The state convention will be a meeting of the state wide vigilance committee and methods will be considered on the most effective plans to report and expose law breakers—whether ordinary bootleggers; or fleece of the law who violate their oaths of office; or people of prestige, manufacturing liquors in their homes or engaging others to violate the law. Reports will disclose much achieved by white ribboners in bringing to justice many law breakers and these reports will encourage to greater effort to make the sunshine state famous for law enforcement.

With wars and rumors of war striking terror to all mother hearts, the call to convention is a call to come together to give united expression to womanhood's abhorrence of war.

The call to convention is personal and urgent.

Come, let us reason together.
Yours for "God and home and humanity."

ANNA WILDS STRUMQUIST,
State President.

MINNIE S. BYRD,
State Corresponding Secretary.

R. C. Dow, George Thomas, Noley Morris, Bob Monroe, and perhaps others, made a trip to Turkey Canyon, and spent some days there without much luck, the first of the week.

EVIL IN NEW LIQUOR
Just why "pure corn liquor" or "moonshine" has a more vicious kick than aged-in-the-wood whiskey was explained to the American Public Health Association at its recent meeting in Cleveland Ohio, by J. M. Doran, head of the industrial alcohol and chemical division of the federal prohibition commissioner's office.

Before and after prohibition analyses show that the only essential difference between the "aged-in-the-barrel" and "moonshine" whiskies is in the aldehyde content. These aldehydes found in the local and home distilled article are very harmful to the human interior, he said, and can only be eliminated by fractionating in an alcohol column or long aging in wooden barrels.

Salts of zinc and copper also contaminates many illicit liquors. The evidences at hand seems to indicate that the after effects in cases of alcoholism are worse than before prohibition, Mr. Doran warned.

Aside from the ghastly effects of the drinking of wood alcohol redistilled denatured alcohol, mixture of ginger and other dangerous concoctions home made "moonshine" was declared a most serious problem.

Sam Batton and Harry Skinner returned from Santa Fe Tuesday night of this week. Cecil Batton, who accompanied them stopped at Roswell on the return trip, and will visit there a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Soliday and two children, spent Saturday and Sunday in Roswell, and were pleased with the city and with the evidences of enterprise found in their projected paving program and other improvements.

Judge Lamb, Dr. Doepp, J. W.
Armstrong, C. M. Stewart and Judge Stenaja, C. M. Stewart and Judge Jolliffe meeting at Roswell last Saturday.

Jodie Graham, of Lovington, was in the city the middle of the week.
Mr. Graham has about recovered from his injury received when he fell from a windmill recently on his ranch near Lovington.
